

Short Span Shelving

Short Span Shelving

Short Span Shelving is a system that is generally used for light duty items that are manually picked and placed. The shelves can be solid or tubular.

The typical products stored on this type of system would be: clothing, boxes, small parts or archiving. The short span shelving would be designed around the product required to be stored.